

narm ngarrgu Library access information

The library is physically accessible with lifts across all 3 floors.

Getting there by tram

The library is located within the free tram zone.

Take trams 19, 57 or 59 to stop 7, Elizabeth Street. Tram route 19 is mostly serviced by a low floor tram and stop 7 is a level access stop.

Take tram 58 to stop 9, Peel Street. Tram route 58 is partly serviced by low level trams and stop 9 is a level access stop. Please visit the Yarra Trams website to assist with your access options.

Getting there by train

Take the city loop train to Flagstaff Station, which has lift access to the corner of William Street and La Trobe Street. Head north along William Street and cross at the corner of Franklin Street.

Take the city loop train to Melbourne Central Station, which has lift access to the corner of Elizabeth Street and La Trobe Street. Head north along Elizabeth Street. Please visit the Metro Trains website to assist with your access options.

Getting there by car/parking information

The Open Air Car Park at Queen Victoria Market is open 5am – 7pm, 7 days per week. Accessible parking is available for people with disability directly to the left and right of the main entrance on Queen Street.

Accessible Parking is also available at all times at the top of Therry Street near the corner of Queen Street.